John Muir, Esq.,

My dear Muir:

Mr. Colby has kindly sent me Wanda's note of October 8, with its reassurance concerning your health. Coming after your note and confirming it this makes me happy.

I have asked the President to commend in his message the acceptance of the Yosemite, and he has promised me to do so. I suppose this ought to be kept private for the present but I have told Mr. Colby so that the club may act intelligently.

Please give my love to your two girls.

Faithfully yours,

R. U. Johnson.
